

CIRMA E-Learning Center

Working with Students with Special Needs 102 Online Training Program

Our E-Learning Programs are FREE to all CIRMA members.

Course Description

This one-hour course is for teachers or trainers working with special needs students will focus on education, and strategies that work best for these students. It will address the required skills and strategies to develop and deliver effective programs to students with special educational needs requires.

Time: One hour Preview the Working with Students with Special Needs 102 online training program here.

Learning Objectives:

After completing this lesson, you will be able to:

- Identify the correct definition for 'intellectual disability'.
- Distinguish between a learning disability and an intellectual disability.
- Recognize the various terms used to describe students with intellectual disabilities.
- Identify three strategies that teachers use when teaching students with intellectual disabilities.

Key Topics Include:

- Intellectual Disabilities
- Behavioral Disorders
- Physical Disabilities and Sensory Impairments

To access CIRMA's E-Learning Center or to see a complete schedule of CIRMA's instructor-led Training & Education programs, please visit — www.CIRMATraining.org

To register for this course, please contact your organization's E-Learning Administrator.

