Confined Spaces 101 Online Training

Our E-Learning Programs are FREE to all CIRMA members.

Course Description

Because confined spaces are potentially dangerous, employers must evaluate all spaces in which their employees work to determine whether hazards exist or whether their work can create hazards. Employers must take certain precautions whenever workers enter or work in a dangerous space. This one-hour course will educate both employers and employees who work in confined spaces on how to develop a safe work environment that complies with federal regulations.
