

CIRMA E-Learning Center

Working with Students with Special Educational Needs 101 Online Training Program

Our E-Learning Programs are FREE to all CIRMA members.

Course Description

Special education programs are specially designed for those students who are mentally, physically, socially and/or emotionally delayed and have special educational needs. As a teacher or trainer, working with students with special educational needs requires specific skills and strategies to develop and deliver effective programs. This one-hour course will focus on special education, and strategies that work best for students with special educational needs.

Time: One hour Preview Working with Students with Special Educational Needs 101 online training program here.

Learning Objectives:

At the end of training, you will have a better understanding of:

- How to describe the fundamentals of special education.
- How to identify and describe the main types of disabilities encountered in the classroom.
- How to create a basic individual education plan for a student with special educational needs.

Key Topics Include:

- Introduction to Special Education
- Teachers' Responsibilities for Special Education
- The Value of Inclusive Education
- Categories of Disabilities
- Learning Disabilities
- Case Study: Assisting a Student with a Learning Disability
- Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)

To access CIRMA's E-Learning Center or to see a complete schedule of CIRMA's instructor-led Training & Education programs, please visit —

www.CIRMATraining.org

To register for this course, please contact your organization's E-Learning Administrator.

