

CIRMA E-Learning Center

Motivating Students to Learn 101 Online Training Program

Our E-Learning Programs are FREE to all CIRMA members.

Course Description:

Motivation is the act or process of giving someone a reason for doing something. Motivation can help direct and focus a student's behavior. For students to succeed in the academic environment, it is necessary for teachers to keep students motivated. This one-hour course will discuss how behavior plays a role in student motivation.

Time: One hour Preview the Motivating Students to Learn 101 online training program here.

Learning Objectives:

At the end of training, you will have a better understanding of:

- Behavior as a source of motivation
- Behavioral perspective - operant conditioning
- Cautions about the behavioral perspective
- Types of motivational goals

Key Topics Include:

- Behavior as a source of motivation
- Behavioral perspective: operant conditioning
- Cautions about behavioral perspectives on motivation
- Types of goals

To access CIRMA's E-Learning Center or to see a complete schedule of CIRMA's instructor-led Training & Education programs, please visit —

www.CIRMATraining.org

To register for this course, please contact your organization's E-Learning Administrator.

