

CIRMA E-Learning Center

Constitutional and Community Policing Online Training Program

Our E-Learning Programs are FREE to all CIRMA members.

Course Description:

Community policing operates within the parameters of the Constitution. Various constitutional issues are relevant today. This course will identify the policies and practices that are most frequently called into question from a constitutional perspective while providing effective methods and strategies for successful community policing.

Time: 2 hours Preview the Constitutional and Community Policing online training program here.

Learning Objectives:

- Recognize key aspects of community policing.
- Comprehend current racial issues and constitutional policing.
- Employ strategies to reinforce constitutional community policing.
- Involve the community to determine police strategies.

Key Topics Include:

- Key issues in Constitutional Policing
- Constitutionality and Legitimacy
- Importance of Leadership
- Racial Issues within the Police Profession
- Improve Training to Change the Police Culture about Race
- Fair and Impartial Police Training
- Constitutional Crime-Reduction Strategies
- Involving the Community
- Terry Stops and the Metrics of Policing
- Racial Disparities Found in Terry Stops
- Hot Spot Policing and Zero Tolerance
- Use of Force and De-Escalation Training
- Involve the Community in the Training Process
- Engaging the Community
- Avoiding Use of Force with People with a Mental Illness
- New Technologies

To access CIRMA's E-Learning Center or to see a complete schedule of CIRMA's instructor-led Training & Education programs, please visit —

www.CIRMATraining.org

To register for this course, please contact your organization's E-Learning Administrator.

