

Officer Safety and Procedure in Domestic Violence Response Online Training Program

Our E-Learning Programs are FREE to all CIRMA members.

Course Description:

Welcome to The Officer Safety and Procedure in Domestic Violence Response course. As is the case with all aspects of law enforcement, the policies and procedures for handling domestic violence incidents continues to evolve.

The goal of the police response to domestic violence calls for service should be to reduce the prevalence and harm of that crime while also preserving officer safety.

This course will describe the procedures that officers need to take when addressing and responding to a domestic violence call.

Time: Two hours

Preview the Officer Safety and Procedure in Domestic Violence Response online training program here.

Learning Objectives:

At the end of training, you will better understand:

- Enforcing laws
- The different types of arrest
- Restraining and protective orders
- Weapons and officers safety
- Victim assistance mandates
- How to write reports
- Children involved in the situation

Key Topics Include:

- Law & Arrest
- Restraining and Protective Orders
- Weapons and Officer Safety
- Victims Assistance Mandates
- Reports
- Children

To access CIRMA's E-Learning Center or to see a complete schedule of CIRMA's instructor-led Training & Education programs, please visit —

www.CIRMATraining.org

To register for this course, please contact your organization's E-Learning Administrator.