Powers & Responsibilities of a Municipal Legal Traffic Authority

A CT Municipal Legal Traffic Authority Program
Required Workshop

Legal Traffic Authorities (LTAs) are responsible for establishing the installation of traffic control devices in their municipalities. This workshop aims to provide LTAs with information on the resources and programs that are available to them to accomplish these tasks.

Who Should Attend

This program is designed for Chief Elected Officials, Police Chiefs, Public Works Officials and other municipal personnel who serve in a capacity of Municipal Legal Traffic Authority. Those who assist Municipal Legal Traffic Authorities in their duties are also encouraged to attend.

Course Instructor

Robert DeCrescenzo is an attorney with Updike, Kelley & Spellacy, P.C. in Hartford, Connecticut. Attorney DeCrescenzo served as the Legal Traffic Authority during his tenure as the Mayor of East Hartford. Upon completion of his term in 1997, he returned to the firm to continue in private practice specializing in municipal representation and commercial litigation.

Staff from the Office of State Traffic Administration, CT DOT Traffic Engineering Representatives and Connecticut's Safety Circuit Rider will also be on hand to share their experiences and answer questions.
