Presenting Effective Testimony in a Courtroom Online Training Program

Our E-Learning Programs are FREE to all CIRMA members.

Course Description:

Law enforcement officers are responsible for apprehending suspects in criminal cases. If the prosecution and defense do not arrive at a plea agreement, the prosecution must prove the suspect's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt in a courtroom. Prosecutors often rely on the testimony of the law enforcement officers involved with the investigation and arrest of the accused. How well the officer performs under questioning can significantly impact the jury's decision to convict or acquit. In this course, the learner will gain understanding about how to most effectively prepare for a court appearance and provide testimony.

Time: Approximately 30 minutes Preview the Presenting Effective Testimony in a Courtroom online training program here.
