

Crowd Management Online Training Program

Our E-Learning Programs are FREE to all CIRMA members.

Course Description:

The First Amendment to the U.S Constitution provides citizens of our country with, among other things, freedom of speech and assembly. That means any group, regardless of whether their position is popular or not, has the right to assemble and express their opinions. As representatives of the law enforcement community, it is your responsibility to ensure that all citizens are given every opportunity to exercise these rights.

In this course the learner will gain understanding regarding the difference between crowd management and crowd control, identifying the steps to be taken in preparation for managing or controlling a crowd, and recognizing the need for keeping cool under pressure while working in crowd management/control situations.

Time: Approximately 30 minutes Preview the Crowd Management online training program here.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the difference between crowd management and crowd control.
- Identify the steps to be taken in preparation for a planned event.
- Recognize the need for keeping cool under pressure while working in crowd management/control.

Key Topics Include:

- First Amendment Rights
- Crowds You Can Plan For
- Crowd Control vs. Crowd Management
- Incident Command System
- Decision Making
- The Role of the Incident Commander
- Maintaining Lines of Communication
- Establishing Lines of Control
- Traffic Control
- Keeping Cool Under Pressure

To access CIRMA's E-Learning Center or to see a complete schedule of CIRMA's instructor-led Training & Education programs, please visit —

www.CIRMATraining.org

To register for this course, please contact your organization's E-Learning Administrator.