Workers’ Compensation fraud injures everyone.

Fraud and abuse add about 10% to the price of Workers’ Compensation insurance premiums across the nation. That’s why CIRMA’s Special Investigation Unit works to protect the system by validating claims and reducing abuse. If you suspect or have information about fraud, contact CIRMA’s Special Investigation Unit:

The Workers’ Compensation system was created to protect workers who are injured on the job. Please help us protect the system.

Workers’ Compensation fraud is a violation of Connecticut General Statute 31-290c, a Class B felony, punishable by up to 20 years in jail and a fine of up to $10,000.
