Lamont Issues Executive Order 7PP Requiring Public Summer School To Commence After July 6, 2020

By Robin Kallor, Partner, Rose Kallor, LLP

On May 18, 2020, Lamont issued a new Executive Order, among other things, closing sleep away camps, extending the prohibition on large gatherings and restrictions on off-track betting, indoor fitness, and movie theaters to June 20, His newest executive order "enhances health procedures" for all day camps, requiring them to comply with the limitations on child group sizes and enhances health procedure requirements placed on child care programs.

Lamont is also preventing public summer school programs from commencing operations before July 6, 2020. The Commissioner of Education, in consultation with public health experts and the Reopen Connecticut Subcommittee on PreK-12 Education, shall issue guidance on the limited operation of summer school programs that are permitted to engage in-person classes after that date, and may issue any implementing order he deems necessary.
