

DAVID DEMCHAK, ARM

President and Chief Executive Officer

Connecticut Interlocal Risk Management Agency (CIRMA)

Chief Operating Officer

Connecticut Conference of Municipalities (CCM)

David is President and Chief Executive Officer of the Connecticut Interlocal Risk Management Agency (CIRMA). CIRMA is Connecticut's market leader in providing risk management and insurance solutions for cities, towns, public schools, and local public agencies. He also serves as the Chief Operating Officer for Connecticut Conference of Municipalities' Shared Services.

With over 39 years of experience in providing strategic, operational, and financial leadership in the insurance industry, David provides the strategic vision, leadership, and direction for CIRMA. His leadership ensures the consistent execution of CIRMA's mission to deliver leading risk management and insurance solutions to Connecticut's public sector. As President and CEO, he is responsible for CIRMA's insurance operations and risk management programs, including strategic planning, growth and profitability, program and product development, financial management, regulatory compliance, human resources, business analytics, and information technology.

He actively participates in the NLC Risk and Insurance Consortium and is a Board Member of the NLC Mutual Insurance Company. He previously served as a Board Member at the Technology Transfer Center at the University of Connecticut and is an active member of the National Fire Protection Association. He was Co-Chair and a Committee Member of the Connecticut Governors Blue Ribbon Commission on Second Injury Fund, a Committee Member on the Connecticut Workers' Compensation Chairman Committee on Hospital and Facility Fees, and currently serves on the Connecticut Cyber Security Committee.

David began his insurance career with the Chubb Group of Insurance Companies. He held the position of Risk Manager for the City of Orange, California, where he participated in developing the Orange County Cities Risk Management Authority. He joined CIRMA in 1989 as the Director of Management Services, became Vice President in 2003, and was promoted to Senior Vice President in 2011. David assumed the position of President and CEO in June 2015.

Mr. Demchak holds a Bachelor's of Science Degree from the University of New Haven, an Associate in Risk Management Designation (ARM) from The Insurance Institutes, received Police Officer Certification from the Golden West Criminal Justice Training Center in Huntington Beach, California, and is an MBA candidate of Pepperdine University.

He resides in North Granby, Connecticut, where he is actively involved in the community. He held elected office with the Board of Finance, served on the boards of several non-profit organizations, and is an officer of his local Fire Department.
