

Matthew Knickerbocker was appointed to the position of Town Administrator for the Town of Wilton in August, 2022, where he serves as the executive director of all non-public safety municipal operations. Prior to joining the Town of Wilton, Matt served as the Town of Bethel's First Selectman from 2009 to 2022. He was also a member of the Bethel Board of Education from 1999 through 2009 and served seven years as its chairman.

In addition to his responsibilities as Wilton's operating official, Matt also works at the regional and state legislative levels to advance the interests of area residents and businesses. In addition to his role as CIRMA's chairman, he is a board member and past chairman of the Connecticut Council of Small Towns, and a board member of the Connecticut Conference of Municipalities, where he serves as co-chair of CCM's Energy and Environment Committee.

Prior to entering public service, Matt enjoyed a twenty-five-year career in the consumer photo/electronics industry with Fujifilm USA in a variety of sales, marketing, and senior management positions.

Matt holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Michigan University, a Master of Public Administration degree from Post University and is a CCM Certified Connecticut Municipal Official. Matt and his wife Adrienne have two adult children and three grandchildren.

Updated December 21, 2022