

Mike Wampold
Vice President, Workers' Compensation Claims
Connecticut Interlocal Risk Management Agency (CIRMA)

Mike is the Vice President of Workers' Compensation Claims at Connecticut Interlocal Risk Management Agency (CIRMA)—Connecticut's market leader in delivering risk management and insurance solutions for cities, towns, public schools, and local public agencies.

Mike offers unequalled Workers' Compensation Claims leadership expertise with over 32 years of claims management experience. He actively leads CIRMA's largest division of Claim professionals, overseeing the delivery of deeply customized workers' compensation claims and managed care products and services unique to CIRMA and its members.

Mike began his career in 1988 as a multi-state, all-lines claims adjuster AT Providence Washington Insurance. He joined CIRMA in 1992 as an Outside Workers' Compensation Claims Representative. Mike has maintained a leadership position with the CIRMA Claims Management team since 1997. He has an unmatched passion for working with Connecticut's public entities and believes in putting CIRMA members first. His team focuses on delivering outstanding products and gold-standard services that ultimately enhance claims experience and outcomes.

Although Mike was born in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, he grew up in Tolland, Connecticut. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics from the University of Connecticut. Mike is an avid fan of UConn Basketball, and in his spare time, he enjoys playing golf and spending time with family and friends.
