

Sherri Adams, SCLA
Vice President, Liability Claims
Connecticut Interlocal Risk Management Agency (CIRMA)

Sherri Adams is the Vice President of Liability Claims at Connecticut Interlocal Risk Management Agency (CIRMA)—Connecticut’s market leader in delivering risk management and insurance solutions for cities, towns, public schools, and local public agencies.

Sherri is a dynamic, passionate insurance authority with highly-regarded, unmatched municipal claim expertise. Her ability to adeptly manage and resolve complex litigated municipal claims in partnership with long-standing, best-in-class CIRMA legal and business partners has distinguished her amongst insurance professionals.

Sherri began her career at AON Risk Services and has advanced to her current leadership role over her 25-year tenure at CIRMA. As Vice President of Liability Claims, she reports directly to President and CEO David Demchak and is responsible for crafting, implementing, and achieving operational goals and objectives for the liability department. Sherri leads a team of claim professionals who handle high-exposure, high-profile, complex municipal liability claims for the market share of Connecticut’s cities, towns, boards of education, and local public agencies.

Under Sherri’s thoughtful guidance, CIRMA continues to safeguard our members’ interests by routinely delivering cost-effective resolutions and favorable litigation outcomes. Sherri holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology with a concentration in Criminal Justice and a Senior Claim Law Associate designation from the American Educational Institutes. She resides in South Windsor, Connecticut, and enjoys playing golf and spending time with family.
